reased capital and facilities, we open the Spring Season with the largest and most complete stockers of early Spring Trade, to which we now nivite your attention, consists of Flow Bridles, Hames, Trace-Chains, Single and Double Trees, Lap Links and Rings, Back Rands, Cotton Rope, Horse and Mule Collars of every grade and description. We confine ourselves siristly to our own line, and will offer to sell you only such goods as we know we are headquarters on. Our pay-roll contains the names of thirty-six skilled mechanics, and we hope in another year to double this force, as ear experience has satisfied as that we can make these goods as cheap as they can be manufactured in any city in the country, while our shipping facilities and low rates of freights will save you at least five per cent, on heavy goods. You can order in small lots and depend on prompt shipment, avoiding delay and carrying large stocks as low as large orders from any other market. Our price-lists are complete, and we will be pleased to forward to you. They speak for themselves.
